

Access for All: Disability and Development

A two-day forum on Capacity Building and Networking

Thursday and Friday, 12 & 13 July 2007 9.00am - 4.30pm

Venue: Lecture Theatre 1, 221 Bouverie Street, Carlton

Day 1: Seminar on Disability and International Development

Day 2: Practical Workshop on Integrating Disability into Development Programs

Key topics:

- Principles and practice of disability-inclusive development
- Disability and emergencies: recent field reports and disability-friendly construction
- Advocacy
- Disability and Human Rights
- Designing disability-inclusive development programs

Photo by Marie Hatzoudis

Suitable for development workers, health professionals, contractors, students and those interested in disability and development issues.

ATTEND EITHER OR BOTH DAYS

Registration fee per person (GST inclusive), which includes lunch, morning and afternoon tea:

Full fee at $110 per day or $198 for two days.

Concession for full-time students/concession cardholders at $55 per day or $99 for two days.

For Registration and further information, contact:

Joni Law

Australian International Health Institute (AIHI)

The University of Melbourne

Ph (03) 8344 1646 Email jycl@unimelb.edu.au